

The Benevolence Ministry - Christian Care Center

The Christian Care Center operates the Benevolence Center. It provides food, clothing, and household items for free. The program is designed to supply families with 5 days of food. It also provides 8 pieces of clothing per family member each month. You can also make an appointment with a counselor once a month. They can help find out your current needs. They may also make referrals for needs that the center cannot give. Please call 352.787.5289 or go to the website to learn more.
