

Domestic Violence Hotline - CASA - Community Action Stops Abuse

Call for Help!

CASA's primary service area is the southern half of Pinellas County in Florida. CASA can be reached by calling the 24-hour help line, 727-895-4912.

If you live outside Pinellas County, call 800-799-SAFE (7233) to talk to an advocate in your area.

If you are in physical danger, call 911 to reach the police.

When you call CASA, an advocate will help you see what danger you are in and what to do about it right now. Call if you feel that you are being abused. Then you can get a safety plan to reduce the abuser's chance to hurt you and your family. (Note: If you are calling CASA on behalf of a friend who may be a survivor, Please call early when you first suspect danger. The sooner a safety plan can be put in place the better!)
