

New Beginnings Youth Shelter in Hernando County

This is a safe shelter for children ages 10-17 that need short term respite care. They serve daily meals and have clothing and personal hygiene items. They have individual and family counseling, as well as information and referrals. They do not take children who are violent or those on juvenile probation. Nor do they take children who are suicidal, suffering a mental crisis, or have been drinking or doing drugs. Please call or visit the website to learn more.
