

Marion Senior Services - Marion Transit Services

Marion Transit Services provide public transportation. This includes services for the transportation disadvantaged. They also help other sponsored and non-sponsored program recipients in Marion County on an advance reservation basis.

Service is provided according to the following needs as space is available:

- Business
- Education
- Life Sustaining Activities
- Medical Needs
- Recreational
- Work

Services Provided By Drivers:

Drivers will help passengers from their doorway into the vehicle. They will also help them from the vehicle to the main entrance of their destination. Most vans are wheelchair equipped. Drivers cannot assist wheelchairs over more than one step or curb. Wheelchairs must not be any wider than 31 inches. Oxygen bottles may be taken if securely attached to the wheelchair or in a small bottle carried by passenger.

Service Animals & Escorts:

Certified Service Animals are allowed to come with passengers. Marion Transit must be notified of this when a reservation is made. Passengers may also have an escort for assistance if medically necessary. Please give them this information when making your reservation so space can be reserved.
