

Housing Assistance - Hope Helps

This agency works to prevent and reduce homelessness in Central Florida. They help individuals and families become self-sufficient through Housing, Outreach, Prevention, and Education (HOPE). They give families the tools they need to get them through their crisis. They offer case management and financial help. They get access to resources and educational programs. HOPE also networks with other agencies to find other needed services.

Please see the website for more details.

Service Location

812 Eyrie Dr
Oviedo, FL 32765
United States

407.366.3422

Provider

URL

<https://www.hopehelps.org/resource-center/>

Hope Help's mission is to prevent and reduce homelessness in Central Florida. They help individuals and families to become self-sufficient through Housing, Outreach, Prevention, and Education.

Services include a food pantry and thrift store. They also have a resource center that helps with referrals and social services. Volunteers offer training courses on specific subjects. All of these services can be found at the Village of HOPE.

Please see the website for more details.

Address

812 Eyrie Dr
Oviedo, FL 32765

United States

Source URL: <https://rightservicefl.org/node/16581>