

Veteran's Services - Employment

This program helps Veterans with service connected disabilities. It helps them to prepare for and find suitable jobs. For Veterans who cannot immediately go to work due to their disability, they may get services to help them to live as independently as possible. This program is also known as the Chapter 31 Program. Veterans will meet with a counselor to consider a plan that meets their specific needs. They may receive training at a college, vocational or technical school. They will get help with job seeking skills. They can also receive counseling and medical referrals as needed.

VetSuccess Program Services Include:

- Assistance finding and keeping a job
- Comprehensive rehabilitation evaluation to determine abilities, skills, and interests
- Employment services such as job-training, job-seeking skills and resume development
- Independent living services for Veterans unable to work due to the severity of their disabilities
- On the Job Training (OJT), apprenticeships, and non-paid work experiences
- Post-secondary training at a college, vocational, technical or business school
- Supportive rehabilitation services including case management, counseling, and medical referrals
- Vocational counseling and rehabilitation planning for employment services
