

Citrus County Children's Advocacy Center - Jessie's Place

This child-friendly center is the central location for services to children who have been abused or neglected. All services for the child are done at this facility in a warm and inviting atmosphere. Interviews are held only once, focusing on the child's care and needs. Please see the website for more information.

Service Location

1410 S. Lecanto Hwy.
Lecanto, FL 34461
United States

352.270.8814

Provider

URL

<http://www.jessiesplacecitrus.org/aboutus.php>

This center helps protect Citrus County children from abuse and neglect. It is the central location for all services to children who have been victimized. The aim of this center is to avoid duplicate services and to partner with area agencies for any help that the child needs. The care plan centers around the child. They can be interviewed in a warm, caring atmosphere. They can get referrals to other services such as a long term counseling. Please see the website for more information.

Services Include:

- Crisis intervention counseling
- Medical diagnosis, evaluation & nursing assessment by Uoff Child Protection Team
- Referrals to partner agencies for long-term counseling needs
- Use of video and audio technology recording during interviews
- Victim advocacy for children and non-offending caregivers
- Warm, comfortable state-of-the-art medical examination rooms

Address

1410 S. Lecanto Hwy.
Lecanto, FL 34461
United States

352.270.8814

---

Source URL: <https://rightservicefl.org/node/17466>