Second Harvest of the Big Bend is a non-profit started to address the urgent problem of hunger in the community. The group's mission is to feed hungry, food insecure people in the Big Bend region of North Florida. The group also works to educate and engage the community in the fight to end hunger. They are the region's primary source for charitable food. Second Harvest acts as a storage and distribution depot for over 149 smaller, front-line agency partners. These partners are spread across eleven counties. Please call or visit the website for more information.
