

Interface Youth Shelter

CDS Family & Behavioral Health Services operates Interface Youth Shelter. It is for youth ages 10-17. These youth are runaways or are experiencing homelessness. The children can also be truant or not getting along with their family or guardians. Stays at the shelter are usually 3-5 weeks at a time. While at the shelter they participate in programs. These programs involve social skills development and counseling. They must also still attend school. Please call or visit the website for more information.
