

Catholic Charities Gainesville Regional Office - Emergency Assistance

This is an emergency assistance program. It helps those in danger of being homeless. You have to live in Gainesville or the surrounding counties to qualify. It is for those struggling with finances. Or those in need of food help. They have a food pantry you can go to once a month. They also help people having a hard time paying bills. Bills like rent and mortgage. As well as utilities. Or help pay for medicine. Please call or visit the website to learn more.
