

National Organization of Rare Disorders - Disease Specific Assistance Program

NORD can help patients with the costs of certain rare diseases. This includes help with their insurance plan's premiums and deductibles. There may also be help with other costs such as medical or travel expenses. Please see the website for a current list of programs.

Service Location

55 Kenosia Avenue
Danbury, CT 06810
United States

203.744.0100

Provider

URL

<http://www.rarediseases.org>

This agency advocates for people who have rare diseases. Their goal is to bring a national awareness of the challenges faced by people with rare disorders. They encourage research and treatment for these conditions. Their Patient Assistance Programs help people get medications they could not otherwise afford. Clients can also get help with transportation and insurance. Please see the website for more information.

Address

1779 Massachusetts Avenue

Washington, DC 20036
United States

800.999.6673

Source URL: <https://rightservicefl.org/node/20217>