

Emergency Energy Assistance for the Elderly - Walton Okaloosa Council on Aging

Walton Okaloosa Council on Aging has Emergency Energy Assistance for the Elderly. It is a program for any senior over 60 years. This program is supposed to help pay for their utility bill, fill a propane tank, and purchase A/C units or space heater. Please call or visit website for more information. Please call 850.494.7101 or visit website for more information.

Service Location

1154 Baldwin Avenue
DeFuniak Springs, FL 32435
United States

850.494.7101

Provider

URL

<https://www.wocoa.net/>

Walton Okaloosa Council on Aging is a non-profit. They provide a range of services. Services are given to the elderly, disabled and disadvantaged persons. Eligibility and fees vary from program to program.

Services include:

- Alzheimer's Disease Day Care
- Case Management
- Congregate Meals
- Education Programs
- Emergency Energy Assistance for the Elderly
- Home Maintenance
- Homemaking
- Loan Closet
- Meals on Wheels

- Personal Care
- Respite Care
- Shopping Assistance
- Social Activities

Address

1154 Baldwin Avenue
DeFuniak Springs, FL 32435
United States

850.892.8165

Source URL: <https://rightservicefl.org/node/20570>